

PERTSHIRE RUGBY

Volunteer Opportunity

Team Manager

Perthshire Rugby's members and volunteers have worked exceptionally hard to build our reputation as one of the leading providers of amateur sport in Scotland. Our core values of inclusion, respect, pride and sportsmanship are at the core of everything we do.

The recruitment of enthusiastic, reliable and dedicated volunteers with the right skills matched to club need is critical to the Club's ability to thrive and deliver our rugby programme successfully.

The role of the Team Manager for Perthshire Rugby is a volunteer role responsible for the communication, organisation and administration of the team. This should not be an onerous role, but it is a critical role in building and maintaining the relationship with parents and players of whom we all hope have a positive and life long relationship with rugby and with Perthshire Rugby.

You will

- Be the 'go to' face & email address for parents of players in the club
- Be the key person who communicates with the parents weekly, keeping them up to date with everything that is going on not only in their team but the whole club.
- Be responsible for ensuring players are complying with registration all processes.
- Deliver communications received by the Section Head to your players/parents
- Possess good people skills, you are the important link between the parents, the coaches and the club
- Have a dedicated club email address for communications.

For more information on the club please visit our website, www.perthshire-rfc.co.uk. If this role is of interest to you, please send details of how your experience and skills match the role requirements by email to admin@perthshire-rfc.co.uk.
